

#ORLANDOSTRONG

Our hearts go out to the victims and their families in the aftermath of the deadly shooting in Orlando.

The City of Orlando, law enforcement, Orlando Health Hospital, the LGBT Community, the Hispanic Community, Orange County Government and other community partners, along with citizens are united during this heartbreaking event. We are part of a resilient community. We are #OrlandoStrong.

Some important information:

- If you are able to, OneBlood still needs donations. They ask that you please make an appointment online at www.OneBlood.org or call 1.888.9.DONATE (1.888.936.6283).
- Jet Blue Cares Program is offering free travel to Orlando for immediate family members and domestic partners of someone who was impacted by the shooting. For more information, please call 1.800.538.2583.
- The City of Orlando Family Emergency Hotline is (407) 246-4357.
- The LGBT Community Center of Central Florida (The Center), in collaboration with its community partners, is offering crisis services to the families, friends and others affected by the mass shooting at Pulse Night Club in Orlando. For more information, visit <http://www.thecenterorlando.org/>.
- Our neighboring Orlando Regional Medical Center, a Level 1 Trauma Center and a silver-level Beacon Award recipient has worked tirelessly to assist victims during this event.